

Section 8 Waiting List

Opens Monday, October 17, 2022 at 6 AM and
closes Sunday, October 30, 2022, at 5 PM Pacific Time

Apply online only at HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG

The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles is accepting online applications for individuals and families to participate in a lottery for a position on the waiting list for its Section 8 Program. The Section 8 Program offers housing assistance to families by paying a portion of their rent to private property owners. Any income-eligible family or individual can apply and someone in your household must have legal residency, even if the legal resident is a minor child. Learn more online at HACLA.ORG.

Individuals and families can apply online 24 hours a day, seven days a week, during the two-week application period using a smartphone, computer, or other mobile device with Internet access. No applications will be accepted in-person or by mail or email. For those without a smartphone or Internet-enabled computer or device, free access to computers and the Internet is available at your local Los Angeles City library.

To apply for the lottery, you need: a valid email address, phone number, the address where you live (if you have one) and mailing address where you can be contacted; the combined annual income for the household; and the full name, date of birth and Social Security number/ Alien Registration number (if you have one) for the Head of Household and their Spouse/ Co-Head (if applicable).

Additional resources such as partners providing application assistance, email setup classes, and free access to computers and the Internet are located at HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG. If you need application or email setup assistance due to a disability, need translation services, or communication in an alternative format, please call 213-523-SEC8 or 877-621-SEC8, between 7 AM and 6 PM Pacific Time, each day during the application period. Individuals with hearing or speech disabilities using TDD or TTY technology may call California Relay Services by dialing 7-1-1 for assistance.

After the application period closes, a random lottery will be conducted to select 30,000 applications to be placed on the Waiting List for the Section 8 Program so applications can be submitted at any time during the two-week application period. A lottery preference for housing assistance will be given to applicants who live, work, or have been hired to work within the City of Los Angeles, and to applicants who are veterans or have a household member who is a veteran of the U.S. military, released from such military service under conditions other than dishonorable.

By December 1, 2022, applicants will be notified by email of their lottery selection status. Applicants can check their status at HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG and/or can contact 213-523-SEC8.

To apply and for more information, please visit HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG.

Section 8 Waiting List

Opens Monday, October 17, 2022 at 6 AM and
closes Sunday, October 30, 2022, at 5 PM Pacific Time

Apply online only at HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG

The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles is accepting online applications for individuals and families to participate in a lottery for a position on the waiting list for its Section 8 Program. The Section 8 Program offers housing assistance to families by paying a portion of their rent to private property owners. Any income-eligible family or individual can apply and someone in your household must have legal residency, even if the legal resident is a minor child. Learn more online at HACLA.ORG.

Individuals and families can apply online 24 hours a day, seven days a week, during the two-week application period using a smartphone, computer, or other mobile device with Internet access. No applications will be accepted in-person or by mail or email. For those without a smartphone or Internet-enabled computer or device, free access to computers and the Internet is available at your local Los Angeles City library.

To apply for the lottery, you need: a valid email address, phone number, the address where you live (if you have one) and mailing address where you can be contacted; the combined annual income for the household; and the full name, date of birth and Social Security number/ Alien Registration number (if you have one) for the Head of Household and their Spouse/ Co-Head (if applicable).

Additional resources such as partners providing application assistance, email setup classes, and free access to computers and the Internet are located at HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG. If you need application or email setup assistance due to a disability, need translation services, or communication in an alternative format, please call 213-523-SEC8 or 877-621-SEC8, between 7 AM and 6 PM Pacific Time, each day during the application period. Individuals with hearing or speech disabilities using TDD or TTY technology may call California Relay Services by dialing 7-1-1 for assistance.

After the application period closes, a random lottery will be conducted to select 30,000 applications to be placed on the Waiting List for the Section 8 Program so applications can be submitted at any time during the two-week application period. A lottery preference for housing assistance will be given to applicants who live, work, or have been hired to work within the City of Los Angeles, and to applicants who are veterans or have a household member who is a veteran of the U.S. military, released from such military service under conditions other than dishonorable.

By December 1, 2022, applicants will be notified by email of their lottery selection status. Applicants can check their status at HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG and/or can contact 213-523-SEC8.

To apply and for more information, please visit HACLA.HCVLIST.ORG.

